4 priate Secretaries, administer a program through which 5 an individual described in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or 6 (5) of section 9001 may obtain long-term care insurance 7 coverage under this chapter for such individual.

8 “(b) GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.—Long-term care in-9 surance may not be offered under this chapter unless—

10 “(1) the only coverage provided is under quali-11 fied long-term care insurance contracts; and 12 “(2) each insurance contract under which any 13 such coverage is provided is issued by a qualified 14 carrier.

15 “(c) DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENT.—As a condi-
16 tion for obtaining long-term care insurance coverage under 17 this chapter based on one’s status as a qualified relative, 18 an applicant shall provide documentation to demonstrate 19 the relationship, as prescribed by the Office.

20 “(d) UNDERWRITING STANDARDS.—

21 “(1) DISQUALIFYING CONDITION.—Nothing in 22 this chapter shall be considered to require that long-23 term care insurance coverage be made available in 24 the case of any individual who would be eligible for 25 benefits immediately.

1           “(2) SPOUSAL PARITY.—For the purpose of un-2       derwriting standards, a spouse of an individual de-3       scribed in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of section 4       9001 shall, as nearly as practicable, be treated like 5       that individual.

6           “(3) GUARANTEED ISSUE.—Nothing in this 7       chapter shall be considered to require that long-term
8       care insurance coverage be guaranteed to an eligible 9       individual.

10          “(4) REQUIREMENT THAT CONTRACT BE FULLY 11       INSURED.—In addition to the requirements other-12       wise applicable under section 9001(9), in order to be 13       considered a qualified long-term care insurance con-14       tract for purposes of this chapter, a contract must 15       be fully insured, whether through reinsurance with 16       other companies or otherwise.

17          “(5) HIGHER STANDARDS ALLOWABLE.—Noth-
18       ing in this chapter shall, in the case of an individual 19       applying for long-term care insurance coverage
20       under this chapter after the expiration of such indi-
21       vidual’s first opportunity to enroll, preclude the ap-22       plication of underwriting standards more stringent 23       than those that would have applied if that oppor-
24       tunity had not yet expired.

1       “(e) GUARANTEED RENEWABILITY.—The benefits
 2 and coverage made available to eligible individuals under 3 any insurance contract under this chapter shall be guaran-
 4 teed renewable (as defined by section 7A(2) of the model
 5 regulations described in section 7702B(g)(2) of the Inter-6 nal Revenue Code of 1986), including the right to have 7 insurance remain in effect so long as premiums continue 8 to be timely made. However, the authority to revise pre-9 miums under this chapter shall be available only on a class
 10 basis and only to the extent otherwise allowable under sec-11 tion 9003(b).

12   “§ 9003. Contracting authority

13       “(a) IN GENERAL.—The Office of Personnel Manage-14 ment shall, without regard to section 5 of title 41 or any 15 other statute requiring competitive bidding, contract with 16 one or more qualified carriers for a policy or policies of 17 long-term care insurance. The Office shall ensure that 18 each resulting contract (hereafter in this chapter referred 19 to as a ‘master contract’) is awarded on the basis of con-20 tractor qualifications, price, and reasonable competition.

21       “(b) TERMS AND CONDITIONS.—

22               “(1) IN GENERAL.—Each master contract
 23       under this chapter shall contain—

1           “(A) a detailed statement of the benefits
2           offered (including any maximums, limitations, 3           exclusions, and other definitions of benefits);

4           “(B) the premiums charged (including any 5           limitations or other conditions on their subse-
6           quent adjustment);

7           “(C) the terms of the enrollment period; 8           and

9           “(D) such other terms and conditions as 10          may be mutually agreed to by the Office and 11          the carrier involved, consistent with the require-12          ments of this chapter.

13          “(2) PREMIUMS.—Premiums charged under 14          each master contract entered into under this section 15          shall reasonably and equitably reflect the cost of the 16          benefits provided, as determined by the Office. The 17          premiums shall not be adjusted during the term of 18          the contract unless mutually agreed to by the Office 19          and the carrier.

20          “(3) NONRENEWABILITY.—Master contracts
21          under this chapter may not be made automatically 22          renewable.

23          “(c) PAYMENT OF REQUIRED BENEFITS; DISPUTE
24          RESOLUTION.—

1           “(1) IN GENERAL.—Each master contract
2           under this chapter shall require the carrier to 3           agree—

4                   “(A) to provide payments or benefits to an 5                   eligible individual if such individual is entitled 6                   thereto under the terms of the contract; and 7                   “(B) with respect to disputes regarding 8                   claims for payments or benefits under the terms

9                   of the contract—

10                   “(i) to establish internal procedures
11                   designed to expeditiously resolve such dis-12                   putes; and

13                   “(ii) to establish, for disputes not re-14                   solved through procedures under clause (i),
15                   procedures for one or more alternative 16                   means of dispute resolution involving inde-
17                   pendent third-party review under appro-
18                   priate circumstances by entities mutually 19                   acceptable to the Office and the carrier.

20           “(2) ELIGIBILITY.—A carrier’s determination 21           as to whether or not a particular individual is eligi-
22           ble to obtain long-term care insurance coverage 23           under this chapter shall be subject to review only to 24           the extent and in the manner provided in the appli-25           cable master contract.

1           “(3) OTHER CLAIMS.—For purposes of apply-
2           ing the Contract Disputes Act of 1978 to disputes 3           arising under this chapter between a carrier and the 4           Office—

5                   “(A) the agency board having jurisdiction
6                   to decide an appeal relative to such a dispute 7                   shall be such board of contract appeals as the 8                   Director of the Office of Personnel Management 9                   shall specify in writing (after appropriate ar-10                  rangements, as described in section 8(c) of such 11                  Act); and 12                  “(B) the district courts of the United 13                  States shall have original jurisdiction, concur-14                  rent with the United States Court of Federal 15                  Claims, of any action described in section 16                  10(a)(1) of such Act relative to such a dispute.

17           “(4) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in 18           this chapter shall be considered to grant authority 19           for the Office or a third-party reviewer to change the 20           terms of any contract under this chapter.

21           “(d) DURATION.—

22                   “(1) IN GENERAL.—Each master contract
23                   under this chapter shall be for a term of 7 years, 24                   unless terminated earlier by the Office in accordance 25                   with the terms of such contract. However, the rights

1 and responsibilities of the enrolled individual, the in-
2 surer, and the Office (or duly designated third-party 3 administrator) under such contract shall continue 4 with respect to such individual until the termination
5 of coverage of the enrolled individual or the effective 6 date of a successor contract thereto.

7 “(2) EXCEPTION.—

8 “(A) SHORTER DURATION.—In the case of 9 a master contract entered into before the end of 10 the period described in subparagraph (B), para-
11 graph (1) shall be applied by substituting ‘end-12 ing on the last day of the 7-year period de-13 scribed in paragraph (2)(B)’ for ‘of 7 years’.

14 “(B) DEFINITION.—The period described 15 in this subparagraph is the 7-year period begin-16 ning on the earliest date as of which any long-17 term care insurance coverage under this chapter 18 becomes effective.

19 “(3) CONGRESSIONAL NOTIFICATION.—No later
20 than 180 days after receiving the second report re-21 quired under section 9006(c), the President (or his 22 designee) shall submit to the Committees on Govern-
23 ment Reform and on Armed Services of the House
24 of Representatives and the Committees on Govern-
25 mental Affairs and on Armed Services of the Senate,

1 a written recommendation as to whether the pro-2 gram under this chapter should be continued with-3 out modification, terminated, or restructured. Dur-4 ing the 180-day period following the date on which 5 the President (or his designee) submits the rec-6 ommendation required under the preceding sentence, 7 the Office of Personnel Management may not take 8 any steps to rebid or otherwise contract for any cov-
9 erage to be available at any time following the expi-10 ration of the 7-year period described in paragraph 11 (2)(B).

12 “(4) FULL PORTABILITY.—Each master con-
13 tract under this chapter shall include such provisions 14 as may be necessary to ensure that, once an indi-
15 vidual becomes duly enrolled, long-term care insur-16 ance coverage obtained by such individual pursuant 17 to that enrollment shall not be terminated due to 18 any change in status (such as separation from Gov-19 ernment service or the uniformed services) or ceas-20 ing to meet the requirements for being considered a 21 qualified relative (whether as a result of dissolution 22 of marriage or otherwise).

23 “§ 9004. Financing

24 “(a) IN GENERAL.—Each eligible individual obtain-25 ing long-term care insurance coverage under this chapter

1 shall be responsible for 100 percent of the premiums for 2 such coverage.

3 “(b) WITHHOLDINGS.—

4 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The amount necessary to 5 pay the premiums for enrollment may—

6 “(A) in the case of an employee, be with-7 held from the pay of such employee;

8 “(B) in the case of an annuitant, be with-9 held from the annuity of such annuitant;

10 “(C) in the case of a member of the uni-11 formed services described in section 9001(3), be 12 withheld from the pay of such member; and 13 “(D) in the case of a retired member of 14 the uniformed services described in section 15 9001(4), be withheld from the retired pay or re-16 tainer pay payable to such member.

17 “(2) VOLUNTARY WITHHOLDINGS FOR QUALI-
18 FIED RELATIVES.—Withholdings to pay the pre-19 miums for enrollment of a qualified relative may, 20 upon election of the appropriate eligible individual 21 (described in section 9001(1)–(4)), be withheld 22 under paragraph (1) to the same extent and in the 23 same manner as if enrollment were for such indi-24 vidual.

1       “(c) DIRECT PAYMENTS.—All amounts withheld
2 under this section shall be paid directly to the carrier.

3       “(d) OTHER FORMS OF PAYMENT.—Any enrollee
4 who does not elect to have premiums withheld under sub-5 section (b) or whose pay, annuity, or retired or retainer 6 pay (as referred to in subsection (b)(1)) is insufficient to 7 cover the withholding required for enrollment (or who is 8 not receiving any regular amounts from the Government, 9 as referred to in subsection (b)(1), from which any such 10 withholdings may be made, and whose premiums are not 11 otherwise being provided for under subsection (b)(2)) shall 12 pay an amount equal to the full amount of those charges 13 directly to the carrier.

14       “(e) SEPARATE ACCOUNTING REQUIREMENT.—Each 15 carrier participating under this chapter shall maintain 16 records that permit it to account for all amounts received 17 under this chapter (including investment earnings on 18 those amounts) separate and apart from all other funds.

19       “(f) REIMBURSEMENTS.—

20               “(1) REASONABLE INITIAL COSTS.—

21                       “(A) IN GENERAL.—The Employees’ Life
22 Insurance Fund is available, without fiscal year 23 limitation, for reasonable expenses incurred by 24 the Office of Personnel Management in admin-
25 istering this chapter before the start of the 7-

1 year period described in section 9003(d)(2)(B), 2 including reasonable implementation costs.

3 “(B) REIMBURSEMENT REQUIREMENT.—

4 Such Fund shall be reimbursed, before the end
5 of the first year of that 7-year period, for all
6 amounts obligated or expended under subpara-
7 graph (A) (including lost investment income).

8 Such reimbursement shall be made by carriers,
9 on a pro rata basis, in accordance with appro-10 priate provisions which shall be included in 11 master contracts under this chapter.

12 “(2) SUBSEQUENT COSTS.—

13 “(A) IN GENERAL.—There is hereby estab-
14 lished in the Employees’ Life Insurance Fund a 15 Long-Term Care Administrative Account, which 16 shall be available to the Office, without fiscal 17 year limitation, to defray reasonable expenses
18 incurred by the Office in administering this 19 chapter after the start of the 7-year period de-20 scribed in section 9003(d)(2)(B).

21 “(B) REIMBURSEMENT REQUIREMENT.—

22 Each master contract under this chapter shall 23 include appropriate provisions under which the 24 carrier involved shall, during each year, make 25 such periodic contributions to the Long-Term

1 Care Administrative Account as necessary to 2 ensure that the reasonable anticipated expenses
3 of the Office in administering this chapter dur-
4 ing such year (adjusted to reconcile for any ear-5 lier overestimates or underestimates under this 6 subparagraph) are defrayed.

7 “§ 9005. Preemption

8 “The terms of any contract under this chapter which 9 relate to the nature, provision, or extent of coverage or 10 benefits (including payments with respect to benefits)
11 shall supersede and preempt any State or local law, or 12 any regulation issued thereunder, which relates to long-13 term care insurance or contracts.

14 “§ 9006. Studies, reports, and audits

15 “(a) PROVISIONS RELATING TO CARRIERS.—Each 16 master contract under this chapter shall contain provi-
17 sions requiring the carrier—

18 “(1) to furnish such reasonable reports as the 19 Office of Personnel Management determines to be 20 necessary to enable it to carry out its functions 21 under this chapter; and 22 “(2) to permit the Office and representatives of 23 the General Accounting Office to examine such 24 records of the carrier as may be necessary to carry 25 out the purposes of this chapter.

1       “(b) PROVISIONS RELATING TO FEDERAL AGEN-
2 CIES.—Each Federal agency shall keep such records,
3 make such certifications, and furnish the Office, the car-4 rier, or both, with such information and reports as the 5 Office may require.

6       “(c) REPORTS BY THE GENERAL ACCOUNTING OF-7 FICE.—The General Accounting Office shall prepare and 8 submit to the President, the Office of Personnel Manage-9 ment, and each House of Congress, before the end of the 10 third and fifth years during which the program under this 11 chapter is in effect, a written report evaluating such pro-12 gram. Each such report shall include an analysis of the 13 competitiveness of the program, as compared to both 14 group and individual coverage generally available to indi-15 viduals in the private insurance market. The Office shall 16 cooperate with the General Accounting Office to provide 17 periodic evaluations of the program.

18   “§ 9007. Jurisdiction of courts

19       “The district courts of the United States have origi-20 nal jurisdiction of a civil action or claim described in para-21 graph (1) or (2) of section 9003(c), after such administra-
22 tive remedies as required under such paragraph (1) or (2)
23 (as applicable) have been exhausted, but only to the extent 24 judicial review is not precluded by any dispute resolution 25 or other remedy under this chapter.

1   “§ 9008. Administrative functions

2           “(a) IN GENERAL.—The Office of Personnel Manage-
3   ment shall prescribe regulations necessary to carry out 4   this chapter.

5           “(b) ENROLLMENT PERIODS.—The Office shall pro-6   vide for periodic coordinated enrollment, promotion, and 7   education efforts in consultation with the carriers.

8           “(c) CONSULTATION.—Any regulations necessary to 9   effect the application and operation of this chapter with 10   respect to an eligible individual described in paragraph (3) 11   or (4) of section 9001, or a qualified relative thereof, shall 12   be prescribed by the Office in consultation with the appro-
13   priate Secretary.

14          “(d) INFORMED DECISIONMAKING.—The Office shall 15   ensure that each eligible individual applying for long-term
16   care insurance under this chapter is furnished the infor-17   mation necessary to enable that individual to evaluate the 18   advantages and disadvantages of obtaining long-term care 19   insurance under this chapter, including the following:

20               “(1) The principal long-term care benefits and 21           coverage available under this chapter, and how those 22           benefits and coverage compare to the range of long-23           term care benefits and coverage otherwise generally 24           available.

25               “(2) Representative examples of the cost of 26           long-term care, and the sufficiency of the benefits

1 available under this chapter relative to those costs.
2 The information under this paragraph shall also 3 include—

4 “(A) the projected effect of inflation on the 5 value of those benefits; and

6 “(B) a comparison of the inflation-adjusted 7 value of those benefits to the projected future 8 costs of long-term care.

9 “(3) Any rights individuals under this chapter 10 may have to cancel coverage, and to receive a total 11 or partial refund of premiums. The information 12 under this paragraph shall also include—

13 “(A) the projected number or percentage 14 of individuals likely to fail to maintain their 15 coverage (determined based on lapse rates experienced under similar group long-term care insurance programs and, when available, this chapter); and

16 “(B)(i) a summary description of how and 17 when premiums for long-term care insurance 18 under this chapter may be raised;

19 “(ii) the premium history during the last 20 10 years for each qualified carrier offering long-21 term care insurance under this chapter; and 22

1           “(iii) if cost increases are anticipated, the 2           projected premiums for a typical insured indi-
